valodu vēstniecība

ANGĻU VALODA

3. līmeņa mācību materiāls

Ludviķa iela 18, Liepāja
Tālr. +37126170488
www.maciesvalodas.lv birojs@valodu-vestnieciba.lv

Copyright © Valodu Vēstniecība
First edition, 2014

push pull

What am I doing?	You're pushing your table.
Do you think I can push the wall?	No, I don't think you can push the wall.
Are you pushing the door to come into this room?	No, I'm not pushing the door to come into this room, but I'm sitting.
Do you push the door to come into this room?	Yes, I push the door to come into this room. or: No, I don't push the door to come into this room, but I pull the door to come into this room.
When I want to go out of this room, should I pull the door?	Yes, to go out of this room, you should pull the door. or: No, to go out of this room, you shouldn't pull the door, but you should push the door.

learn need

What do you need to write?	I need a pen to write.
What do you need to sit?	I need a chair to sit.
Do you need to learn English?	Yes, I need to learn English. or: No, I don't need to learn English, but I want to learn English.
Do you need to take money before you go to the shop?	Yes, I need to take money before I go to the shop.

free

Is the food in shops free?	No, the food in shops isn't free, but you must pay for it.

Do you work?	Yes, I work. or: No, I don't work.
Do you have free coffee at work?	Yes, I have free coffee at work. or: No, I don't have free coffee at work.
Are you free now?	No, I'm not free now, but I must study.
Will you be free on Sunday?	Yes, I will be free on Sunday. or: No, I won't be free on Sunday.

hard easy

Is Latvian easy?	Yes, Latvian is easy. or: No, Latvian isn't easy, but it's hard.
Does Japanese seem easy?	No, Japanese doesn't seem easy, but it seems hard.
Is your job hard?	Yes, my job is hard. or: No, my job isn't hard, but it's easy.
Do you think my job is easy?	Yes, I think your job is easy. or: No, I don't think your job is easy, but I think it's hard.

build

Can you build a house?	Yes, I can build a house. or: No, I can't build a house.
Are you building a house?	No, I'm not building a house, but I'm sitting.
Do you build houses?	Yes, I build houses. or: No, I don't build houses.

offer

Would you like something to drink?	Yes, please.
What am I doing?	You're offering him something to drink.
Can you offer me a job?	Yes, I can offer you a job. or: No, I can't offer you a job.

own

Do you have your own book?	Yes, I have my own book.
Do you have your own house?	Yes, I have my own house. or: No, I don't have my own house.
Does she have her own house?	Yes, she has her own house. or: No, she doesn't have her own house.
Do you have your own car?	Yes, I have my own car.
Does he have his own car?	or: No, I don't have my own car. Yes, he has his own car. or: No, he doesn't have his own car.

Who has kids here?

Do your kids have their own phones?	Yes, my kids have their own phones. or: No, my kids don't have their own phones.

actually everything

Is everything in your book in English?	Yes, everything in my book in English.
Must you pay for everything you buy in a shop?	Yes, I must pay for everything I buy in a shop.

Can you understand everything I say?	Yes, I can understand everything you say. or: No, I don't understand everything you say.

hear listen to

Can you hear this?	Yes, I can hear that.
Are you listening to this?	No, I'm not listening to that, but I hear that.
Are you listening to music?	No, I'm not listening to music, but I'm listening to you.
Do you listen to music?	Yes, I listen to music.
What kind of music do you listen to?	I listen to jazz.
Can you hear any music now?	No, I can't hear any music now.

have to

Must you study?	Yes, I must study.
Do you have to study?	Yes, I have to study.
Do you have to study at night?	No, I don't have to study at night.
Must you pay in the shop?	Yes, I must pay in the shop.
Do you have to pay in the shop?	Yes, I have to pay in the shop.
Do you have to sit now?	No, I don't have to sit, but I can stand.
Do you have to go to work today?	Yes, I have to go to work today. or: No, I don't have to go to work today.

How do you feel?

How are you today?	I'm fine.
How do you feel today?	I feel OK.

And how do you feel?	I feel fine.
How are you?	I'm OK.

add

Do you add sugar to your coffee?	Yes, I add sugar to my coffee. or: No, I don't add sugar to my coffee.
Do you add sugar to my coffee?	No, I don't add sugar to your coffee.
Do you drink black or white coffee?	I drink white coffee.
Does he drink white coffee?	He drinks white coffee.

finish before after

What time does the lesson start?	The lesson starts at 6 p.m.
When do you come to this room?	I come to this room before the lesson starts.
What time does the lesson finish?	The lesson finishes at 6.40.
When do we leave this room?	We leave this room after the lesson finishes.
Do you ever leave this room before the lesson finishes?	Yes, I sometimes leave this room before the lesson finishes. or: No, I never leave this room before the lesson finishes.
Do you ever come to this room after the lesson starts?	Yes, I sometimes come to this room after the lesson starts. or: No, I never come to this room after the lesson starts.

a high school
a college

Which do you think is the best college in Latvia?	I think the best college in Latvia is ...
Which is the best college in Riga ?	I think the best college in Riga is ...
Which was your college?	My college was ...
Which is the best high school in this town?	The best high school in this town is ...
Who has kids here?
Do your kids go to high school or college?	My kids go to high school.

like look

Do you want to be strong like Bergmanis?	Yes, I want to be strong like Bergmanis. or: No, I don't want to be strong like Bergmanis.
Do you want to play basketball like Michael Jordan?	Yes, I want to play basketball like Michael Jordan. or: No, I don't want to play basketball like Michael Jordan.
Do you think Angelina Jolie looks good?	Yes, I think Angelina Jolie looks good. or: No, I don't think Angelina Jolie looks good.
Would you like to look like Angelina Jolie?	Yes, I would like to look like Angelina Jolie. or: No, I wouldn't like to look like Angelina Jolie.

Do you look like your mother?	Yes, I look like my mother. or: No, I don't look like my mother, but I look like my father.
Do you look like your father?	Yes, I look like my father. or: No, I don't look like my father, but I look like my mother.
Do I look like your father?	No, you don't look like my father.

power

Does the president have a lot of power in Latvia?	Yes, the president has a lot of power in Latvia. or: No, the president doesn't have a lot of power in Latvia.
Do you think the president has a lot of power in the USA?	Yes, I think the president has a lot of power in the USA. or: No, I don't think the president has a lot of power in the USA.
Which political party has a lot of power in Latvia?	... has a lot of power in Latvia.
Does Aivars Lembergs have a lot of power in Riga ?	No, Aivars Lembergs doesn't have a lot of power in Riga , but he has a lot of power in Ventspils.
Would you like to have a lot of power?	Yes, I would like you have a lot of power. or: No, I wouldn't like to have a lot of power.

a show
the news
a movie / a film

Do you watch TV?	Yes, I watch TV. or: No, I don't watch TV.

Do you watch the news on TV?	Yes, I watch the news on TV. or: No, I don't watch the news on TV.
Do you read the news on the Internet?	Yes, I read the news on the Internet. or: No, I don't read the news on the Internet.
Do you talk to your friends about the news?	Yes, I talk to my friends about the news. or: No, I don't talk to my friends about the news.
Which is the best news show on TV?	The best news show on TV is ...
Which is the best show on TV?	The best show on TV is ...
Do you watch films on TV or on your computer?	I watch films on TV.
Do you watch movies with your friends?	Yes, I watch movies with my friends. or: No, I don't watch movies with my friends.
Do you like old movies?	Yes, I like old movies.
Which is the best Latvian film?	or: No, I don't like old movies, but I like new movies. The best Latvian film is ...

love
each other

Do you love your family?	Yes, I love my family.
Do children love their parents?	Yes, children love their parents.
Do you love your country?	Yes, I love my country.
Do a husband and wife love each other?	Yes, a husband and wife love each other.
Do kids and parents love each other?	Yes, kids and parents love each other.

Are we looking at each other?	Yes, we're looking at each other.
Are we talking to each other?	Yes, we're talking to each other.
Do students talk to each other in the lessons?	Yes, students sometimes talk to each other in the lessons.
Do you talk to each other in Latvian after the lesson?	Yes, we talk to each other in Latvian after the lesson. or: No, we don't talk to each other in Latvian after the lesson, but we talk in Russian.

an area

Do many people live in this area?	Yes, many people live in this area. or: No, not many people live in this area.
Do many young people in this area go to Latvijas Universitāte?	Yes, many young people in this area go to Latvijas Universitāte.
Do many people play football in your area?	Yes, many people play football in my area. or: No, not many people play football in my area.
Do you think many people in your area are selling their apartments at the moment?	Yes, I think many people in my area are selling their apartments at the moment. or: No, I don't think many people in my area are selling their apartments at the moment.

let

Do teachers let students speak Latvian during the lessons?	No, teachers don't let students speak Latvian during the lessons.
Should teachers let students speak Latvian during the lessons?	No, teachers shouldn't let students speak Latvian during the lessons.

Do teachers let students talk to each other?	Yes, teachers let students talk to each other.
Would you let me use your phone?	Yes, I would let you use my phone. or: No, I wouldn't let you use my phone.
Would you let me take all your money?	No, I wouldn't let you take all my money.
Would you let me live in your house?	No, I wouldn't let you live in my house.

might

Do you think I might have something here?	Yes, I think you might have something there. or: No, I don't think you might have something there.
Do you think I might have a million dollars?	Yes, I think you might have a million dollars.
Do you think she might speak Spanish well?	Yes, I think she might speak Spanish well. or: No, I don't think she might speak Spanish well.
Do you think you might learn Japanese next year?	Yes, I think I might learn Japanese next year. or: No, I don't think I might learn Japanese next year.

provide a service

Does Lattelecom provide Internet in your house?	Yes, Lattelecom provides Internet in my house. or: No, Lattelecom doesn't provide Internet in my house, but ... provides it.

Does Lattelecom provide good service?	Yes, Lattelecom provides good service. or: No, Lattelecom doesn't provide good service, but it provides bad service.
Does Rigas Satiksme provide good service?	Yes, Rigas Satiksme provides good service. or: No, Rigas Satiksme doesn't provide good service, but it provides bad service.
Which company provides water in your house?	Rigas ūdens provides water in my house.
Does the school provide books for you?	Yes, the school provides books for us.

real

Is Santa Claus real?	No, Santa Claus isn't real.
Do kids believe that Santa Claus is real?	Yes, kids believe that Santa Claus is real.
Is the president always the real leader of the country?	No, the president isn't always the real leader of the country.
Do women always tell their real age?	No, women don't always tell their real age.
Are all things that people write in books real?	No, not all things that people write in books are real.

a sign a road sign follow

What does this sign mean?	This sign means ...
Can you drive a car?	Yes, I can drive a car. or: No, I can't drive a car.

Are you a good driver?	Yes, I'm a good driver. or: No, I'm not a good driver, but I'm a bad driver.
Do you think I might be a good driver?	Yes, I think you might be a good driver. or: No, I don't think you might be a good driver, but I think you might be a bad one.
Do you always follow road signs?	Yes, I always follow road signs. or: No, I don't always follow road signs.
Do you know all the road signs?	Yes, I know all the road signs. or: No, I don't know all the road signs.
Will you follow me after the lesson?	No, I won't follow you after the lesson.

they serve

Do they make cars in Japan?	Yes, they make cars in Japan.
Do they make good cars in Japan?	Yes, they make good cars in Japan. or: No, they don't make good cars in Japan.
Do they drive on the left or the right side of the street in England?	They drive on the left side of the street in England.
Do they serve food in Čili Pica?	Yes, they serve food in Čili Pica.
Do they also serve coffee there?	Yes, they also serve coffee there.
Do they serve coffee in Double Coffee?	Yes, they serve coffee in Double Coffee.
Do they provide good service at Lattelecom?	Yes, they provide good service at Lattelecom. or: No, they don't provide good service at Lattelecom, but they provide bad service.
Do they sell many things in RIMI?	Yes, they sell many things in RIMI.

change

Do you have any change with you?	Yes, I have some change with me. or: No, I don't have any change with me.
Do you like having a lot of change?	Yes, I like having a lot of change. or: No, I don't like having a lot of change.
Do you give people on the street change if they ask you?	Yes, I give people on the street change if they ask me. or: No, I don't give people on the street change if they ask me.
Do you ever find change in public places?	Yes, I sometimes find change in public places.
Do you ever take it?	Yes, I sometimes take it. or: No, I never take it.

get

Where can you get food?	You can get food at the shop.
Do you always get change when you pay at the shop?	Yes, I always get change when I pay at the shop.
Where can you get coffee?	You can get coffee at ..
How can you get an English book?	I can ask a teacher and get a book from the school.
How often do you get new clothes?	I get new clothes once a month.

an education
a system

Why do people go to college?	People go to college to get an education.

Can you get a good education at the University of Latvia?	Yes, you can get a good education at the University of Latvia. or: No, you can't get a good education at the University of Latvia.
Is the public education system in Latvia good?	Yes, the public education system in Latvia is good. or: No, the public education system in Latvia isn't good, but it's bad.
Is public education always free?	No, public education isn't always free, but you sometimes must pay for it.
Does the public education system in Latvia provide a good education?	Yes, the public education system in Latvia provides a good education. or: No, the public education system in Latvia doesn't provide a good education, but it provides a bad education.
Do all people get their education in public schools?	No, not all people get their education in public schools, but some go to private schools.

allow health healthy

Who has kids here?

Do you allow your kids to play outside?	Yes, I allow my kids to play outside.
Do you allow your kids to watch TV at night?	Yes, I allow my kids to watch TV at night. or: No, I don't allow my kids to watch TV at night.
Do you allow your kids to use the computer all day?	No, I don't allow my kids to use the computer all day.

Who has a dog here?

Do you allow your dog to sleep in the house?	Yes, I allow my dog to sleep in the house. or: No, I don't allow my dog to sleep in the house.
Do all people allow their dogs to sleep in the house?	No, not all people allow their dogs to sleep in the house.
Should people allow their kids to eat a lot of sugar?	No, people shouldn't allow their kids to eat a lot of sugar.
Why not?	Because it's bad for their health.
Is it good for the health to do sports?	Yes, it's good for the health to do sports.
Are you a healthy person?	Yes, I'm a healthy person. or: No, I'm not a healthy person.
Is it healthy to work 7 days a week?	No, it isn't healthy to work 7 days a week.
Do you do a lot of sports?	Yes, I do a lot of sports. or: No, I don't do a lot of sports.
Do you like doing sports?	Yes, I like doing sports. or: No, I don't like doing sports.

wait in line

Do you often have to wait in line?	Yes, I often have to wait in line. or: No, I don't often have to wait in line.
Do you like waiting in line?	No, I don't like waiting in line.
Do you ever talk to people around you while you wait in line?	Yes, I sometimes talk to people around me while I wait in line. or: No, I never talk to people around me while I wait in line.
Do you ever talk on the phone while you wait in line?	Yes, I sometimes talk on the phone while I wait in line. or: No, I never talk on the phone while I wait in line.

even

Is 2 + 2 so easy that even children know it?	Yes, 2 + 2 is so easy that even children know it.
Is this room so big that even 15 people can sit here?	Yes, this room is so big that even 15 people can sit here.
Are some people so healthy that they don't even drink coffee?	Yes, some people are so healthy that they don't even drink coffee.
Are some shops open so long that you can even go there at night?	Yes, some shops are open so long that you can even go there at night.

anyone someone everyone
everybody

Is there anyone in this room?	Yes, there is someone in this room.
Do you think anyone's standing behind the door?	Yes, I think someone's standing behind the door. or: No, I don't think anyone's standing behind the door.
Does everybody in this room speak English?	Yes, everybody in this room speaks English.
Can everyone in Latvia speak English?	No, not everyone in Latvia can speak English.
Do you have everything you need for the lesson?	Yes, I have everything I need for the lesson. or: No, I don't have everything I need for the lesson – I don't have ...
Do you listen to everything I say?	Yes, I listen to everything you say.
Do kids listen to everything their parents say?	No, kids don't listen to everything their parents say.

Do you believe everything they say on the news?	Yes, I believe everything they say on the news. or: No, I don't believe everything they say on the news.
Do you believe everything you read on the Internet?	No, I don't believe everything I read on the Internet.

the only

Am I the only teacher in this room?	Yes, you're the only teacher in this room. or: No, you aren't the only teacher in this room, but ... is also a teacher.
Are you the only student in this school?	No, I'm not the only student in this school, but there are many students.
Are you the only one here?	No, I'm not the only one here, but there are also other people here.
Are you the only one who studies English in your family?	Yes, I'm the only one who studies English in my family. or: No, I'm not the only one who studies English in my family, but my ... also studies English.
Were you the only child in your family?	Yes, I was the only child in my family. or: No, I wasn't the only child in my family, but my parents also have ...

others

Do you ever help others?	Yes, I often help others.
Do you like talking to others?	Yes, I like talking to others. or: No, I don't like talking to others.

Would you like to know what others think about you?	Yes, I would like to know what others think about me. or: No, I wouldn't like to know what others think about me.
Do you often talk to others about your health?	Yes, I often talk to others about my health. or: No, I don't often talk to others about my health.

in 2 hours within 2 hours

Where will you be in 2 hours?	I'll be ... in 2 hours.
What will you do in 2 hours?	I'll ... in 2 hours.
Will you be here in 2 days?	Yes, I'll be here in 2 days. or: No, I won't be here in 2 days.
How many times will you come here within a week?	I'll come here twice within a week.
How many times will you be here within a month?	I'll be here eight times within a month.
What do you want to do within 5 years?	I want to ... within 5 years.
Will there be changes in your life within 5 years?	Yes, there will be changes in my life within 5 years.
Will we leave this room in 2 hours?	No, we won't leave this room in 2 hours, but we'll leave it in ten minutes.
Will we leave this room within 2 hours?	Yes, we'll leave this room within 2 hours.

business

Do you have your own business?	Yes, I have my own business. or: No, I don't have my own business.

Would you like to start a business?	Yes, I would like to start a business. or: No, I wouldn't like to start a business.
Do you think a family business is a good idea?	Yes, I think a family business is a good idea. or: No, I don't think a family business is a good idea.
Would you like to work in the show business?	Yes, I would like to work in the show business. or: No, I wouldn't like to work in the show business.
Do you think working in the music business is easy?	Yes, I think working in the music business is easy. or: No, I don't think working in the music business is easy, but I think it's hard.
Do you have any good business ideas?	Yes, I have some good business ideas. or: No, I don't have any good business ideas.

else

Do you have a pen?	Yes, I have a pen.
Do you have anything else?	Yes, I have something else – a book, a phone, ...
Are you here?	Yes, I'm here.
Is anybody else here?	Yes, somebody else is here – the other students and the teacher are here.
What's your address?	My address is ...
Does anybody else live there?	Yes, somebody else lives there – my family lives there.
What will you do after the lesson?	I'll go home after the lesson.

Will you do anything else?	Yes, I'll do something else – I'll watch TV.

better ... than

Do you drink tea with sugar?	Yes, I drink tea with sugar. or: No, I don't drink tea with sugar, but I drink tea without it.
Is tea with sugar better than tea without sugar?	Yes, tea with sugar is better than tea without sugar. or: No, tea with sugar isn't better than tea without sugar.
Is coffee with milk better than coffee without milk?	Yes, coffee is better with milk than without milk. or: No, coffee isn't better with milk than without milk.
Do you speak Latvian better than English?	Yes, I speak Latvian better than English.
Do you think Fridays at work are better than Mondays?	Yes, I think Fridays at work are better than Mondays. or: No, I don't think Fridays at work are better than Mondays.
Do you think it's better to live in Latvia or in the USA?	I think it's better to live in Latvia.
Do you think my pen is better than your pen?	Yes, I think your pen is better than my pen. or: No, I don't think your pen is better than my pen.
Is drinking water better for your health than drinking coffee?	Yes, drinking water is better for your health than drinking coffee.

shouldn't mustn't

Should students come to the lesson after it starts?	No, students shouldn't come to the lesson after it starts.
But can they do it if they need?	Yes, they can do it if they need.
Should people drink coffee in the evening?	No, people shouldn't drink coffee in the evening.
But can they do it if they have to work at night?	Yes, they can do it if they have to work at night.
Should we speak Latvian during the lesson?	No, we shouldn't speak Latvian during the lesson.
Can people take somebody else's things if they don't allow it?	Yes, people can take somebody else's things if they don't allow it, but they mustn't do that.
Can people write on the walls of buildings?	Yes, people can write on the walls of buildings, but they mustn't do it.
Can children drive cars?	Yes, some children can drive cars, but they mustn't do it.
Why not?	Because they're too young.

explain
a difference (between)

Who explains new English words to you?	The teachers explain new words to me.
Do you sometimes understand new words without explaining?	Yes, I sometimes understand new words without explaining.
Is it easy to explain simple things to children?	No, it isn't easy to explain simple things to children.
Can you please explain the difference between our pens?	The difference between our pens is that my pen is blue and your pen is black.

Can you explain the difference between a window and a door?	The difference between a window and a door is that we can walk through doors, but we shouldn't walk through windows.
Please explain the difference between a hand and a foot?	The difference between a hand and a foot is that we use our hands to take things, but we use our feet to walk.

the police
a police officer

Are you a police officer?	Yes, I'm a police officer. or: No, I'm not a police officer.
Would you like to become a police officer?	Yes, I would like to become a police officer. or: No, I wouldn't like to become a police officer.
Are many police officers in Latvia women?	Yes, many police officers in Latvia are women. or: No, not many police officers in Latvia are women.
Do you often have to call the police?	Yes, I often call the police. or: No, I don't often call the police.
Do you think people should call the police when they see that somebody is writing on a wall?	Yes, I think people should call the police when they see that somebody is writing on the wall. or: No, I don't think people should call the police when they see that somebody is writing on the wall.

I would / I'd

Would you like to learn more new words today?	Yes, I'd like to learn more new words today.

Would you like to have a million Euros?	Yes, I'd like to have a million Euros. or: No, I wouldn't like to have a million Euros.
Would you like to become a police officer?	Yes, I'd like to become a police officer. or: No, I wouldn't like to become a police officer.
Would he like to become a police officer?	Yes, he'd like to become a police officer. or: No, he wouldn't like to become a police officer.
Do you think I'd like to leave this room now?	No, I don't think you'd like to leave this room.
Would you like to learn Japanese?	Yes, I'd like to learn Japanese. or: No, I wouldn't like to learn Japanese.

a couple
a relationship

Do you have a couple of things on your table?	Yes, I have a couple of things on my table.
Would you like to get a couple of free lessons each month?	Yes, I would like to get a couple of free lessons each month.
Are you a couple of students?	Yes, we're a couple of students.
Are you a couple?	No, we aren't a couple.
Do you have a good relationship with your friends?	Yes, I have a good relationship with my friends.
Do you have a good relationship with the other students?	Yes, I have a good relationship with the other students.
Do you have a good relationship with the police?	Yes, I have a good relationship with the police.

Is it important to have a good relationship with the police?	Yes, it's important to have a good relationship with the police. or: No, it isn't important to have a good relationship with the police.

receive

Do you receive many e-mails?	Yes, I receive many e-mails. or: No, I don't receive many e-mails, but I receive few e-mails.
Do you often receive letters?	Yes, I often receive letters. or: No, I don't often receive letters.
Do you ever receive letters from the government?	Yes, I sometimes receive letters from the government. or: No, I never receive letters from the government.
Is it better to receive a letter from a friend than from the government?	It's better to receive a letter from my friend.
Do you receive a couple of text messages a day?	Yes, I receive a couple of text messages a day. or: No, I don't receive a couple of text messages a day, but I receive more.
Do teachers always receive answers when they ask you questions?	Yes, teachers always receive answers when they ask you questions.

true
possible

I'm a woman. Is this true?	Yes, it's true.
There are 8 people in this room. Is that true?	Yes, that's true.

Is it true that my book is black and white?	Yes, it's true that your book is black and white.
Is it true that you have two sons?	Yes, it's true that I have two sons. or: No, it isn't true that I have two sons.
Is it possible that you won't be here next lesson?	Yes, it's possible that I won't be here next lesson. or: No, it isn't possible that I won't be here next lesson.
Is it possible that there will be 9 students here next lesson?	Yes, it's possible that there will be 9 students here next lesson.
Is it possible to learn English in one month?	No, it isn't possible to learn English in one month.
Is it possible that somebody will call you during this lesson?	Yes, it's possible that somebody will call me during this lesson. or: No, it isn't possible that somebody will call me during this lesson.

Did you ...?
the past

Did you live in Riga 1 month ago?	Yes, I lived in Riga 1 month ago.
Did she live in Riga 1 month ago?	Yes, she lived in Riga 1 month ago.
Did the teacher explain new words last lesson?	Yes, the teacher explained new words last lesson.
Did you learn new words last lesson?	Yes, I learned new words last lesson.
Did you use your pen last lesson?	Yes, I used my pen last lesson.
Did you study English last week?	Yes, I studied English last week.
Did your parents allow you to play football when you were a child?	Yes, my parents allowed me to play football when I was a child.

Did you believe in Santa Claus when you were a child?	Yes, I believed in Santa Claus when I was a child.
Did the teacher ask you questions last lesson?	Yes, the teacher asked us questions last lesson.
Did she receive answers?	Yes, she received answers.
Did the school provide this book for you?	Yes, the school provided this book for me.
Did you open the door before the lesson?	Yes, I opened the door before the lesson.
Did you push or pull the door to open it?	I pushed the door to open it.
Did you talk to the other students last lesson?	Yes, I talked to the other students last lesson.
What time did the lesson finish last week?	The lesson finished at half past eight last week.
What did Picasso create?	Picasso created art.
When was the last time you played football?	The last time I played football was 2 months ago.
When was the last time you offered to help somebody?	The last time I offered to help somebody was 1 hour ago.
When was the last time you listened to music?	The last time I listened to music was this morning.
What happened in this room last lesson?	The teacher explained words and asked questions, we answered questions, listened and talked in this room last lesson.
Who talked to you last lesson?	The teacher and the other students talked to me last lesson.
Is it possible that I worked last Sunday?	No, it isn't possible that you worked last Sunday.
Why not?	Because the school isn't open on Sundays.
Is it possible that he watched TV last night?	Yes, it's possible that he watched TV last night.

didn't

Did you talk to Barack Obama last week?	No, I didn't talk to Barack Obama last week.
Did you stay in this room after last lesson?	No, I didn't stay in this room after last lesson.
Did you change your name this morning?	No, I didn't change my name this morning.
Did you try to stand on your head last lesson?	No, I didn't try to stand on my head last lesson.
Did she offer you coffee before the lesson?	No, she didn't offer me coffee before the lesson.
Did the teacher talk on the phone during last lesson?	No, the teacher didn't talk on the phone during last lesson.
Who here drinks coffee without milk?
Did you add milk to your coffee this morning?	No, I didn't add milk to my coffee this morning.
Did I open the door 1 minute ago?	No, you didn't open the door 1 minute ago.
Did he move his table 5 minutes ago?	No, he didn't move his table 5 minutes ago.

join joined

When did you join this group?	I joined this group in ...
Would you like to join a political party?	Yes, I'd like to join a political party. or: No, I wouldn't like to join a political party.
Do you ever join your friends when they go to the shop?	Yes, I sometimes join my friends when they go to the shop.

Do your friends join you when you go to work?	Yes, my friends sometimes join me when I go to work. or: No, my friends never join me when I go to work.
When did you start living in this town?	I started living in this town in ...
When did you stop living together with your parents?	I stopped living together with my parents in ...
When did you start school?	I started school in ...
When did you finish high school?	I finished high school in ...
When did you start college?	I started college in ...
When did you finish college?	I finished college in ...
When did you start learning English?	I started learning English in ...
When was the last time you received something from Santa Claus?	The last time I received something from Santa Claus was in ...

former

Please tell me the names of two former presidents of Latvia.	Two former presidents of Latvia are Jānis Čakste and Kārlis Ulmanis.
Tell me the name of another former president.	Another former president is Vaira Vīķe-Freiberga.
Please tell me the name of a former president of the USA.	A former president of the USA is Abraham Lincoln.
Where do you work at the moment?	I work at ... at the moment.
Where were your former jobs?	My former jobs were at ... and ...
Did you like your former jobs?	Yes, I liked my former jobs. or: No, I didn't like my former jobs.

a husband a wife single

Are you single?	Yes, I'm single. or: No, I'm not single.
Do you have a husband?	Yes, I have a husband. or: No, I don't have a husband.
Do you think he has a wife?	Yes, I think he has a wife. or: No, I don't think he has a wife.
Is Barack Obama single?	No, Barack Obama isn't single, but he has a wife.
What's the name of Barack Obama's wife?	The name of Barack Obama's wife is Michelle.

a bed sleep
a hotel double

Where do you sleep?	I sleep in a bed.
Is it better to sleep in a big bed than in a small bed?	It's better to sleep in a big bed.
Can two people sleep in a single bed?	Yes, two people can sleep in a single bed.
Do you sleep in a double bed?	Yes, I sleep in a double bed. or: No, I don't sleep in a double bed.
When was the last time you stayed in a hotel?	The last time I stayed in a hotel was ...
Which is the best hotel in this town?	The best hotel in this town is ...
Is there a Hilton hotel in this town?	No, there isn't a Hilton hotel in this town.

Do you think there are more single rooms or double rooms in most hotels?	I think there are more double rooms in most hotels.

ex-

Who is the best ex-president of Latvia?	The best ex-president of Latvia is Vaira Vīķe-Freiberga.
Can you tell me the name of an ex-president of the USA?	Abraham Lincoln is an ex-president of the USA.
How else can you call a former wife?	You can call a former wife an ex-wife.
Do women usually have good relationships with their ex-husbands?	Yes, women usually have good relationships with their ex-husbands. or: No, women usually don't have good relationships with their ex-husbands, but they have bad relationships.

suggest

I want to study something. What do you suggest I study?	I suggest you study ...
I want to drink coffee. Where do you suggest I go?	I suggest you go ...
I want to join a political party. Which party do you suggest I join?	I suggest you join ...
I want to leave this room. Do you suggest I push or pull the door?	I suggest you push the door.

a brother
a sister

Who here has a brother?

What's his name?	His name is ...

Do you have a sister?	Yes, I have a sister. or: No, I don't have a sister.
Does your sister have a husband?	Yes, my sister has a husband. or: No, my sister doesn't have a husband.
Do you have any brothers or sisters?	Yes, I have ... or: No, I don't have any brothers or sisters.
Are you an only child?	Yes, I'm an only child. or: No, I'm not an only child, but I have ...

a price

What was the price for your pen?	The price for my pen was 1 euro.
Would 10 Euros be a very high price for a pen?	Yes, 10 Euros would be a very high price for a pen.
What was the price for your book?	The price for my book was ... or: I got my book for free.
Would 15 cents be a very low price for an English book?	Yes, 15 cents would be a very low price for an English book.
What's an OK price for a new car?	An OK price for a new car is 20 000 Euros.
What's a great price for a new car?	A great price for a new car is 15 000 Euros.
What do you think the price is for a double room in a hotel?	I think the price for a double room in a hotel is about 55 Euros.
Would you pay 1000 Euros for a night in a hotel?	No, I wouldn't pay 1000 Euros for a night in a hotel.

a bank
a hospital
a church

How often do you go to the bank?	I go to the bank twice a month.

Why do people go to the bank?	People go to the bank because they need money.
Which is the best bank in Latvia?	The best bank in Latvia is ...
When do people go to the hospital?	People go to the hospital when they don't feel well.
Do you work at a hospital?	Yes, I work at a hospital. or: No, I don't work at a hospital, but I work at ...
Do you go to church?	Yes, I go to church. or: No, I don't go to church.
On which days do people usually go to church?	People usually go to church on Sundays.

a season summer fall / autumn winter spring

Is it summer now?	Yes, it's summer now.
Tell me the months of fall, please.	The months of fall are September, October and November.
Which are winter months?	December, January and February are winter months.
Which is better – summer or winter?	Summer is better.
Which do you like more – winter sports or summer sports?	I like summer sports more.
Did you start studying in fall?	Yes, I started studying in fall. or: No, I didn't start studying in fall, but I started studying in spring.

whose?

Whose pen is that?	It's her pen.
Whose table is this?	It's your table.
Whose room is this?	It's our room.
Whose hair is black?	His hair is black.
Whose name is Rihards?	His name is Rihards.
Whose wife is Michelle Obama?	Michelle Obama is Barack Obama's wife.
Whose name is Andris Bērziņš?	Andris Bērziņš is the name of the president of Latvia.

a need air

Do small children have many needs?	Yes, small children have many needs.
Do you have many needs during the lesson?	No, I don't have many needs during the lesson.
Do people have a need for air if they want to live?	Yes, people have a need for air if they want to live.
Do people have to pay for air?	No, people don't have to pay for air.
Do you have a strong need for coffee in the morning?	Yes, I have a strong need for coffee in the morning. or: No, I don't have a strong need for coffee in the morning.

an event

Are there many events in this town in summer?	Yes, there are many events in this town in summer.
Which is the best event of the year in Riga ?	The best event of the year in Riga is ...

Which is the best event of the year in Latvia?	The best event of the year in Latvia is ...
Do you watch sports events on TV?	Yes, I watch sports events on TV. or: No, I don't watch sports events on TV.
Do you go to local sports events?	Yes, I go to local sports events. or: No, I don't go to local sports events.
Do you like going to public events?	Yes, I like going to public events. or: No, I don't like going to public events.
Do you watch the Olympic Games?	Yes, I watch the Olympic Games. or: No, I don't watch the Olympic Games.
When were the last Winter Olympic Games?	The last Winter Olympic Games were in 2014.
What kind of an event is Eurovision?	Eurovision is a music event.

agree

Which is the best football team in the world?	I think the best football team in the world is ...
I agree! I also think ... is the best football team in the world.
Should all people study English?	Yes, all people should study English.
I agree! I also think all people should study English.
Do you agree that summer is the best season of the year?	Yes, I agree that summer is the best season of the year. or: No, I don't agree that summer is the best season of the year, because I think spring is the best season.

Do you agree that 1 million Euros is a good price for an apartment?	No, I don't agree that 1 million Euros is a good price for an apartment, because it's too high.

support

Does your family support you?	Yes, my family supports me.
Does your family support everything you do?	Yes, my family supports everything I do. or: No, my family doesn't support everything I do.
Should people in a relationship always support each other?	Yes, people in a relationship should always support each other.
Which political party do you support?	I support …
Do you support local businesses?	Yes, I support local businesses.
How?	I buy things from them and use their services.
Do some Latvian people go to other countries to support sports teams?	Yes, some Latvian people go to other countries to support sports teams.

get up early late

Do you get up early?	Yes, I get up early. or: No, I don't get up early, but I get up late.
What time do you get up?	I get up at 7 a.m.
What time do you get up on Sundays?	I get up at 9 a.m. on Sundays.
Do you think that's early or late?	I think that's early.

Do you go to bed late on Friday nights?	Yes, I go to bed late on Friday nights. or: No, I don't go to bed late on Friday nights, but I go to bed early.
Do you go to bed early when you have to work the next morning?	Yes, I go to bed early when I have to work the next morning.
Do you really always do that or do you try?	I really always do that. or: I try.
Do you like getting up really early?	Yes, I like getting up really early. or: No, I don't like getting up really early.

earlier
later bigger earliest latest biggest

early	earlier	the earliest
late	later	the latest
big	bigger	the biggest
small	smaller	the smallest
hard	harder	the hardest
easy	easier	the easiest

Who here lives together with their family?

Who gets up the earliest in your family?	My daughter gets up the earliest in my family.
What time does she get up?	She gets up at 6 a.m.
Why does she get up so early?	She gets up so early because she has to be at work at 7 a.m.
Who comes to the lesson the latest?	You come to the lesson the latest.

Do I always come to the lesson the latest?	No, you don't always come to the lesson the latest.
Would you like to start our lessons later?	Yes, I'd like to start our lessons later. or: No, I wouldn't like to start our lessons later.
Do you think we should have our lessons earlier?	Yes, I think we should have our lessons earlier. or: No, I don't think we should have our lessons earlier.
Is Spain bigger than Latvia?	Yes, Spain is bigger than Latvia.
Is Rīga bigger than Liepāja?	Yes, Rīga is bigger than Liepāja.
Is Grobiņa smaller than Liepāja?	Yes, Grobiņa is smaller than Liepāja.
Which is the smallest town in Latvia?	Durbe is the smallest town in Latvia.
Which is the smallest thing in this room?	That is the smallest thing in this room.
Is he older than you?	Yes, he's older than me. or: No, he isn't older than me, but he's younger.
Who do you think is the youngest person in this room?	I think Elza is the youngest person in this group.
Do I seem older than her?	Yes, you seem older than her. or: No, you don't seem older than her.
Who's the oldest person in this group?	Visvaldis is the oldest person in this group.
Is it healthier to drink water than to drink coffee?	Yes, it's healthier to drink water than to drink coffee.
Who is the healthiest person you know?	My friend Zanda is the healthiest person I know.
Do you think Chinese might be harder than English?	Yes, I think Chinese might be harder than English.

the center

Is our school in the center of the town?	Yes, our school is in the center of the town.
Is the hospital also in the center?	No, the hospital isn't also in the center, but it's far from the center.
Do you live far from the center?	Yes, I live far from the center. or: No, I don't live far from the center, but I live near it.
Am I standing in the center of the room?	Yes, you're standing in the center of the room. or: No, you aren't standing in the center of the room.
Is your place in the center of the room?	No, my place isn't in the center of the room.
Is the window far from the center of the room?	Yes, the window is far from the center of the room.

west north south east

Where is Lithuania?	Lithuania is south of Latvia.
Is Estonia north of Latvia?	Yes, Estonia is north of Latvia.
Is Russia south of Latvia?	No, Russia isn't south of Latvia, but it's east of Latvia.
Where is Valmiera?	Valmiera is in the north of Latvia.
Is Daugavpils in the west of Latvia?	No, Daugavpils isn't in the west of Latvia, but it's in the east.
Is Ventspils in the center of Latvia?	No, Ventspils isn't in the center of Latvia, but it's in the west.
Which towns are in the *east of Latvia?	Rēzekne, Alūksne and Balvi are in the *east of Latvia.

Do we live in the north of Latvia?	Yes, we live in the north of Latvia. or: No, we don't live in the north of Latvia.
Which towns are south of here?	..., ... and ... are south of here.
Do you know which way I'm looking now?	I think you're looking north.

fall
pick up

What's happening with my pen at the moment?	Your pen is falling at the moment.
Am I falling?	No, you aren't falling, but your pen is falling.
Where is my pen?	Your pen is on the floor.
What should I do now?	You should pick it up.
Do you always pick your things up when they fall?	Yes, I always pick my things up when they fall. or: No, I don't always pick my things up when they fall.
Would you pick up my pen for me?	Yes, I would pick up your pen for you.
Do you pick up money from the street?	Yes, I pick up money from the street. or: No, I don't pick up money from the street.
Do you ever pick up food from the floor and then eat it?	Yes, I sometimes pick up food from the floor and then eat it. or: No, I never pick up food from the floor and then eat it.

a baby
a step take a step happy

Do people hold babies like this?	No, people don't hold babies like that, but they hold them like this.
Do you have a baby?	Yes, I have a baby. or: No, I don't have a baby.
Do small babies have many needs?	Yes, small babies have many needs.
What am I doing?	You're taking a step.
Could I take a step with my legs together?	No, you couldn't take a step with your legs together.
How many steps do I have to take to be by the door?	You have to take about 5 steps to be by the door.
Are parents happy when their baby takes its first steps?	Yes, parents are happy when their baby takes its first steps.
Are you happy?	Yes, I'm happy. or: No, I'm not happy.
Are you happier in the summer than in the winter?	Yes, I'm happier in the summer than in the winter. or: No, I'm not happier in the summer than in the winter, but I'm happier in the winter.
Who do you think is the happiest person in the world?	I think ... is the happiest person in the world.

How ..?

How should people hold a baby?	People should hold a baby like this.
How can I go to Bauska?	You can go to Bauska along the A7.
How can I find the nearest shop?	You can find the nearest shop if you go ...
How do you like watching movies?	I like watching movies on my computer.

How should I open this door?	You should push the door.
How do you say 'darbības vārds' in English?	You say 'verb' in English.

reach a star

Can you reach the light?	No, I can't reach the light.
Can she reach the door from where she's sitting?	No, she can't reach the door from where she's sitting.
How can I reach the window?	You can reach the window if you take about 5 steps.
Can people reach the stars?	No, people can't reach the stars.
How many stars do you think there are?	I think there are very many stars.
Please tell me the name of a movie star.	Angelina Jolie is a movie star.
Who is the biggest rock star in the world?	I think Mick Jagger is the biggest rock star in the world.

until

How long will we be in this room?	We'll be in this room until half past seven.
How long will you study English?	I'll study English until I can speak it well.
Until what age do people usually work?	People usually work until the age of 62 or 65.
How long must I walk until I reach the nearest shop?	You must walk for 10 minutes until you reach the nearest shop.
How long was Valdis Zatlers the president of Latvia?	Valdis Zatlers was the president of Latvia until 2011.
How long do you think most parents allow their children to watch TV?	I think most parents allow their children to watch TV until 9 p.m.

the end

How much time do we have until the end of the lesson?	We have 15 minutes until the end of the lesson.
How much time is there until the end of this day?	There are 5 hours until the end of this day.
How many steps would I have to take to reach the end of this street?	You would have to take 2000 steps to reach the end of this street.
Do you always watch films until the end?	Yes, I always watch films until the end. or: No, I don't always watch films until the end.
Do you believe in the end of the world?	Yes, I believe in the end of the world. or: No, I don't believe in the end of the world.

foreign
a language

Do you like foreign cars?	Yes, I like foreign cars.
Do you listen to foreign music more than Latvian music?	Yes, I listen to foreign music more than Latvian music. or: No, I don't listen to foreign music more than Latvian music.
Do you have any foreign money with you?	Yes, I have some foreign money with me. or: No, I don't have any foreign money with me.
Are dollars Latvian money?	No, dollars aren't Latvian money, but they're foreign money.
How many languages do you speak?	I speak 3 languages.

Which foreign languages do you think I can speak?	I think you can speak English and Spanish.
Do you have any foreign friends?	Yes, I have some foreign friends. or: No, I don't have any foreign friends.
Do you think many foreign people live in Latvia?	Yes, I think many foreign people live in Latvia. or: No, I don't think many foreign people live in Latvia.
Which countries are they from?	They're from Russia, Germany, the USA, ...

difficult simple

Do you think Chinese might be difficult?	Yes, I think Chinese might be difficult.
Does English seem difficult to you?	Yes, English seems difficult to me. or: No, English doesn't seem difficult to me.
Do foreign languages ever seem simple?	Yes, foreign languages sometimes seem simple. or: No, foreign languages never seem simple.
Was it difficult to start studying English?	Yes, it was difficult to start studying English. or: No, it wasn't difficult to start studying English.
Do you have to do many difficult things at work?	Yes, I have to do many difficult things at work. or: No, I don't have to do many difficult things at work.
Is building a house simple?	No, building a house isn't simple, but it's difficult.

more difficult
the most difficult difficult important	more difficult more important	the most difficult the most important

Is English more difficult than Chinese?	No, English isn't more difficult than Chinese, but it's simpler.
Do you think learning Spanish would be more difficult than learning English?	Yes, I think learning Spanish would be more difficult than learning English. or: No, I don't think learning Spanish would be more difficult than leaning English, but it would be simpler.
Which is more difficult – speaking English or writing in English?	Writing in English is more difficult.
Which was the most difficult job in your life?	Working as ... was the most difficult job in my life.
Which is more important to you – your family or your work?	My family is more important to me.
Who is the most important person in your life?	My son is the most important person in my life.

as well as

Do you have a pen as well as a book?	Yes, I have a pen as well as a book.
Is there a teacher as well as students in this room?	Yes, there is a teacher as well as students in this room.
Can you speak Latvian as well as English?	Yes, I can speak Latvian as well as English.
Can you read as well as write in English?	Yes, I can read as well as write in English.

Do kids go to school in the summer as well as in the fall?	No, kids don't go to school in the summer as well as in the fall, but they only go to school in the fall.

future
soon

Will we go home soon?	Yes, we'll go home soon. or: No, we won't go home soon.
Is the end of the lesson soon?	Yes, the end of the lesson is soon. or: No, the end of the lesson isn't soon.
Will you finish studying soon?	No, I won't finish studying soon.
Do you think we'll have a test soon?	No, I don't think we'll have a test soon.
Do you think you'll learn more new words in the future?	Yes, I think we'll learn more new words in the future.
What do you want to do in the future?	I want to go to Japan in the future.
Is last week in the future?	No, last week isn't in the future, but it's in the past.

a century
a decade

Which century do we live in?	We live in the 21st century.
Which century did Marilyn Monroe live in?	Marilyn Monroe lived in the 20th century.
How long is one century?	One century is 100 years long.
How long is a decade?	A decade is 10 years long.
Who is the most important person of this decade?	The most important person of this decade is ...

remain

How long will you remain here?	I'll remain here until 8 p.m.
Will you remain in this room after the end of the lesson?	No, I won't remain in this room after the end of the lesson.
Do you remain home if you aren't healthy?	Yes, I remain home if I'm not healthy. or: No, I don't remain home if I'm not healthy.
Do you think I'll remain a teacher for 20 years?	Yes, I think you'll remain a teacher for 20 years. or: No, I don't think you'll remain a teacher for 20 years.
Do you think you'll remain a student for a decade?	No, I don't think I'll remain a student for a decade.

point

What am I doing?	You're pointing at me.
Do I always point at the student who should answer?	Yes, you always point at the student who should answer.
Do I ever point with my finger?	No, you never point with your finger.
Will it be OK if I point with my foot?	No, it won't be OK if you point with your foot.

increase a population
a billion

What is the population of Riga ?	The population of Riga is about 700 thousand people.
What's the population of Latvia?	The population of Latvia is about 2 million people.

Do you think the population of the world is 5 billion people?	No, I don't think the population of the world is 5 billion people.
Does the population of the world increase every year?	Yes, the population of the world increases every year.
Does the population of Latvia increase each year?	No, the population of Latvia doesn't increase each year.
Did house prices increase last year?	Yes, house prices increased last year.
Did food prices increase last year?	Yes, food prices increased last year.
Were book prices lower a decade ago?	Yes, book prices were lower a decade ago.

an experience
I have lived

Have you ever lived in a foreign country?	Yes, I have lived in a foreign country. or: No, I have never lived in a foreign country.
Have you ever received anything from Santa Claus?	Yes, I have received something from Santa Claus. or: No, I have never received anything from Santa Claus.
Have you ever tried to become a police officer?	Yes, I have tried to become a police officer. or: No, I have never tried to become a police officer.
Have you ever explained an English word to somebody?	Yes, I have explained an English word to somebody. or: No, I have never explained an English word to anybody.
Have you ever watched TV in English?	Yes, I have watched TV in English. or: No, I have never watched TV in English.

Have you ever added sugar to meat?	Yes, I have added sugar to meat. or: No, I have never added sugar to meat.
Have you ever stayed at home when you had a lesson?	Yes, I have stayed at home when I had a lesson. or: No, I have never stayed at home when I had a lesson.
Have you ever talked to somebody from Japan?	Yes, I have talked to somebody from Japan. or: No, I have never talked to anybody from Japan.
Have you ever picked up money from the street?	Yes, I have picked up money from the street. or: No, I have never picked up money from the street.
Have you ever agreed to speak in front of very many people?	Yes, I have agreed to speak in front of very many people. or: No, I have never agreed to speak in front of very many people.
Have you ever worked as a teacher?	Yes, I have worked as a teacher. or: No, I have never worked as a teacher.
Have you ever talked on the phone during a lesson?	Yes, I have talked on the phone during a lesson. or: No, I have never talked on the phone during a lesson.
Have you ever played tennis?	Yes, I have played tennis. or: No, I have never played tennis.
Have you ever created music?	Yes, I have created music. or: No, I have never created music.
Have you ever wanted to become a president?	Yes, I have wanted to become a president. or: No, I have never wanted to become a president.

Have you ever asked me a question?	Yes, I have asked you a question. or: No, I have never asked you a question.
Have you ever answered his question?	Yes, I have answered his question. or: No, I have never answered his question.
Have you ever offered your teacher something to eat?	Yes, I have offered my teacher something to eat. or: No, I have never offered my teacher something to eat.
Have you ever stayed in this room after the end of the lesson?	Yes, I have stayed in this room after the end of the lesson. or: No, I have never stayed in this room after the end of the lesson.
Have you ever changed the color of your hair?	Yes, I have changed the color of my hair. or: No, I have never changed the color of my hair.
Do you have a lot of work experience?	Yes, I have a lot of work experience. or: No, I don't have a lot of work experience.
Do you have much experience with children?	Yes, I have much experience with children. or: No, I don't have much experience with children.
Is experience important for somebody who wants to find a job?	Yes, experience is important for somebody who wants to find a job.

yet

Is it the end of the lesson yet?	No, it isn't the end of the lesson yet.
Is it 9 p.m. yet?	No, it isn't 9 p.m. yet.
Are you 80 years old yet?	No, I'm not 80 years old yet.

Do you know all English words yet?	No, I don't know all English words yet.
Have you learned 3 million English words yet?	No, I haven't learned 3 million English words yet.

since for

Where do you live?	I live in Riga .
How long have you lived there?	I have lived here for 25 years, since 1989.
Where do you work?	I work at ...
How long have you worked there?	I have worked there for 5 years, since 2009.
What's your job?	I work as a ...
How long have you worked as ..?	I have worked as a ... for 12 years, since 2002.
What are you studying?	I'm studying English.
How long have you studied English?	I have studied English for 2 months, since August.
What do I do during lessons?	You ask us questions during the lesson.
How long have I asked you questions today?	You have asked us questions for 30 minutes today, since 6 p.m.

still

When did you start living in Riga ?	I started living in Riga in 1989.
Do you still live here?	Yes, I still live here.
When did you start learning English?	I started learning English in August.
Are you still learning English?	Yes, I'm still learning English.
Will you still be in this room at 9 p.m.?	No, I won't be in this room at 9 p.m.

Do people still work when they're 90 years old?	No, people don't work when they're 90 years old.
Do you still remember your first English lesson?	Yes, I still remember my first English lesson. or: No, I don't remember my first English lesson.
When did you start going to college?	I started going to college in 1992.
Do you still remember the names of all the people you were in college with?	Yes, I still remember the names of all the people I was in college with. or: I don't remember the names of all the people I was in college with.

already

Has the lesson already started?	Yes, the lesson has already started.
Has the lesson already finished?	No, the lesson hasn't finished yet.
How many English words have you already learned?	We've already learned about 700 English words.
Do some people already have kids before they're 18?	Yes, some people already have kids before they're 18.

probably

How many people are there in the USA?	I'm not sure, but there are probably more than 300 million people in the USA.
Who has a wife here?
Where is your wife?	I'm not sure, but she's probably at work.
What do I have here?	I'm not sure, but you probably have some money there.
Will she come to school next week?	I'm not sure, but she'll probably come to school next week.

Tell me something that you will probably never do.	I will probably never become president.
Do you think he has learned Russian?	He probably has learned Russian.
Do you think he has learned Chinese?	He probably hasn't learned Chinese.
Do you think she has lived in Paris?	She probably hasn't lived in Paris.
Do you think he has learned 3000 English words?	He probably hasn't learned 3000 English words.
Do you think she has tried to stand on her head?	She probably has tried to stand on her head.
Do you think he has stayed in a hotel?	He probably has stayed in a hotel.

make an effort

Do you make an effort to understand everything I say?	Yes, I make an effort to understand everything you say.
Do you make an effort to learn English well?	Yes, I make an effort to learn English well.
Should people make an effort to stay healthy?	Yes, people should make an effort to stay healthy.
Does Mr. Bērziņš make an effort to lead this country?	Yes, Mr. Bērziņš makes an effort to lead this country.

a piece paper
a page

What's this?	It's a piece of paper.
Do you eat meat?	Yes, I eat meat. or: No, I don't eat meat.

Do you ever eat only a piece of meat in the morning?	Yes, I sometimes eat only a piece of meat in the morning. or: No, I never eat only a piece of meat in the morning.
Do you ever write somebody's phone number on a piece of paper?	Yes, I sometimes write somebody's phone number on a piece of paper. or: No, I never write anybody's phone number on a piece of paper.
Do you ever write important information on a piece of paper and then lose it?	Yes, I sometimes write important information on a piece of paper and then lose it. or: No, I never write important information on a piece of paper and then lose it.
Is your book open?	Yes, my book is open. or: No, my book isn't open.
Which page is it open to?	It's open to page ...

television

Do you like television?	Yes, I like television. or: No, I don't like television.
Do you often watch television?	Yes, I often watch television. or: No, I don't often watch television.
Have you ever watched American television shows?	Yes, I have watched American television shows. or: No I haven't watched American television shows.
Tell me the name of a local television star, please.	Māris Grigalis is a local television star.

the market

How often do you go to the market?	I got to the market twice a month.
Which is the nearest market?	The nearest market is ...
Do they only sell food at the market?	No, they don't only sell food at the market, but they also sell clothes and other things.
Are food prices lower at the market than in shops?	Yes, food prices are lower at the market than in shops. or: No, food prices aren't lower at the market than in shops, but they're higher.

activity

Do you like healthy activities?	Yes, I like healthy activities. or: No, I don't like healthy activities.
Is running healthy?	Yes, running is healthy.
Is watching television a healthy activity?	No, watching television isn't a healthy activity.
Can playing football sometimes be bad for the health?	Yes, playing football can sometimes be bad for the health.
Is playing games important for kids?	Yes, playing games is important for kids.
Is playing too much computer games good for kids?	No, playing too much computer games isn't good for kids.
Which do you think is the best activity in our lessons?	I think the best activity in our lessons is asking questions.
Is following road signs a good idea?	Yes, following road signs is a good idea.
Is learning English a good idea?	Yes, learning English is a good idea.
Is learning English hard?	No, learning English isn't hard, but it's easy.

a story an author an artist

Do you often tell stories?	Yes, I often tell stories. or: No, I don't often tell stories.
Do you like listening to stories more than telling them?	Yes, I like listening to stories more than telling them. or: No, I don't like listening to stories more than telling them, but I like telling stories more.
Could you tell us a story next lesson?	Yes, I could tell you a story next lesson.
Who has kids here?
Do you read stories to your kids before they go to bed?	Yes, I read stories to my kids before they go to bed. or: No, I don't read stories to my kids before they go to bed.
Who is the author of 'Romeo and Juliet'?	William Shakespeare is the author of 'Romeo and Juliet'.
Who is the best Latvian author?	The best Latvian author is ...
Who is the best foreign author?	The best foreign author is ...
Who do you think was the best author of the 20th century?	I think the best author of the 20th century was ...
Are you an artist?	Yes, I'm an artist. or: No, I'm not an artist.
Would you like to become an artist?	Yes, I'd like to become an artist. or: No, I wouldn't like to become an artist.
Do you think being an artist is hard?	Yes, I think being an artist is hard. or: No, I don't think being an artist is hard, but I think it's easy.

throw a ball throw away

Can you throw a ball far?	Yes, I can throw a ball far. or: No, I can't throw a ball far.
In what sports do they throw a ball?	They throw a ball in basketball.
Could you throw your book out the window?	No, I couldn't throw my book out the window.
Why not?	Because I need it.
What do people do with old things?	People throw away old things.
Do you often throw away food?	Yes, I often throw away food. or: No, I don't often throw away food.
Do you throw away your old clothes or do you give them to somebody else?	I throw away my old clothes.

a store

Are there many stores in this street?	Yes, there are many stores in this street. or: No, there aren't many stores in this street.
Which is the best book store in this town?	I think Jāņa Rozes grāmatnīca is the best book store in this town.
Which is the best food store?	RIMI is the best food store.
Do you buy food in stores or at the market?	I buy food in stores.
Do you have your own store?	Yes, I have my own store. or: No, I don't have my own store.

Is opening a store a good business idea?	Yes, opening a store is a good business idea. or: No, opening a store isn't a good business idea.

a professor theory

Are you a professor?	Yes, I'm a professor. or: No, I'm not a professor, but I'm a ...
Am I a professor?	No, you aren't a professor, but you're a teacher.
Do you think it's difficult to become a professor?	Yes, I think it's difficult to become a professor. or: No, I don't think it's difficult to become a professor.
Is it important to learn theory before you do something?	Yes, it's important to learn theory before you do something. or: No, it isn't important to learn theory before you do something.

Who can drive here?

Did you learn driving theory before you tried to drive?	Yes, I learned driving theory before I tried to drive. or: No, I didn't learn driving theory before I tried to drive.
I have a theory: It's easier to learn English when you speak a lot. Do you agree with my theory?	Yes, I agree with your theory. or: No, I don't agree with your theory, but I think ...
Some people believe the theory that the end of the world will come soon. Do you agree with this theory?	Yes, I agree with this theory. or: No, I don't agree with this theory.

hot cold

Is it hot in Greece?	Yes, it's hot in Greece.
Do you think it's hot in December in Portugal?	Yes, I think it's hot in Portugal in December. or: No, I don't think it's hot in December in Portugal.
Is it hot in this room?	Yes, it's hot in this room. or: No, it isn't hot in this room.
If it's too hot in the room, what should we do?	If it's too hot in the room, we should open the window.
Is it cold today?	Yes, it's cold today. or: No, it isn't cold today.
Do you think it's cold in Finland today?	Yes, I think it's cold today in Finland. or: No, I don't think it's cold in Finland today.
Which do you like more: hot or cold coffee?	I like hot coffee more.
Does Portugal seem a hotter country than Latvia?	Yes, Portugal seems a hotter country than Latvia.

a chance
an opportunity

Should everybody have the chance to get a free education?	Yes, everybody should have the chance to get a free education.
Do all people have the chance to learn English with a teacher?	No, not all people have the chance to learn English with a teacher.
Do you have the chance to work from home if you need?	Yes, I have the chance to work from home if I need. or: No, I don't have the chance to work from home if I need.

After people do something bad, do you give them a second chance?	Yes, after people do something bad, I give them a second chance. or: No, after people do something bad, I don't give them a second chance.
Is there a chance it will be colder next week?	Yes, there's a chance it will be colder next week. or: No, there isn't a chance it will be colder next week.
Is there a chance you will get a new job soon?	Yes, there's a chance I'll get a new job soon. or: No, there isn't a chance I'll get a new job soon.
Are there many job opportunities in Latvia?	Yes, there are many job opportunities in Latvia. or: No, there aren't many job opportunities in Latvia.
Are these lessons your only opportunity to speak English?	Yes, these lessons are my only opportunity to speak English. or: No, these lessons aren't my only opportunity to speak English, but I also ...
Do you always use the opportunity to help somebody?	Yes, I always use the opportunity to help somebody. or: No, I don't always use the opportunity to help somebody.

two point five two and a half

What's this number?	It's two point three.
How much time do we spend here a day?	We spend one and a half hours a day here.
Where were you two and a half hours ago?	I was at work two and a half hours ago.

Would you pay four point two Euros for this pen?	Yes, I'd pay four point two Euros for this pen. or: No, I wouldn't pay four point two Euros for this pen.
Is eighteen point seven thousand Euros an OK price for a new car?	Yes, eighteen point seven thousand Euros is an OK price for a new car. or: No, eighteen point seven thousand Euros isn't an OK price for a new car, but it's too high.

current recent

What is your current job?	My current job is ...
What were your former jobs?	My former jobs were ...
Who is the current president of Latvia?	Andris Bērziņš is the current president of Latvia.
Tell me the name of a former president of Latvia, please.	Kārlis Ulmanis is a former president of Latvia.
What is the current population of Latvia?	The current population of Latvia is about 2 million people.
What was the population of Latvia 20 years ago?	The population of Latvia was about 2 and a half million people 20 years ago.
Is the current population of the world bigger than the population 20 years ago?	Yes, the current population of the world is bigger than the population 20 years ago.
Do you always know everything about recent events in the world?	Yes, I always know everything about recent events in the world. or: No, I don't always know everything about recent events in the world.

Has our town changed a lot in recent years?	Yes, our town has changed a lot in recent years. or: No, our town hasn't changed a lot in recent years.
Has the world changed a lot in recent decades?	Yes, the world has changed a lot in recent decades.
Has the population of the world increased in recent centuries?	Yes, the population of the world has increased in recent centuries.

right wrong

You have 3 daughters. Am I right?	Yes, you're right. or: No, you're wrong.
There are 4 billion people in the world. Am I right?	No, you're wrong.
You finished college in 1997. Am I right?	Yes, you're right. or: No, you're wrong.
Is it wrong to say everything you think about people?	Yes, it's wrong to say everything you think about people. or: No, it isn't wrong to say everything you think about people.
Is it wrong to allow children to watch television at night?	Yes, it's wrong to allow children to watch television at night. or: No, it isn't wrong to allow children to watch television at night.
Is it wrong to do a lot of sports when it's very hot?	Yes, it's wrong to do a lot of sports when it's very hot. or: No, it isn't wrong to do a lot of sports when it's very hot.

make money
take a risk

Do you make a lot of money?	Yes, I make a lot of money. or: No, I don't make a lot of money.
Would you like to make more money?	Yes, I'd like to make more money. or: No, I wouldn't like to make more money.
Is it easy to make a lot of money?	Yes, it's easy to make a lot of money. or: No, it isn't easy to make a lot of money, but it's hard.
If I want to make a lot of money, what should I do?	If you want to make a lot of money, you should work more.
Do you often take risks?	Yes, I often take risks. or: No, I don't often take risks.
Should people take risks if they want to make money?	Yes, people should take risks if they want to make money. or: No, people shouldn't take risks if they want to make money.
Do you think taking risks in business is a good idea?	Yes, I think taking risks in business is a good idea. or: No, I don't think taking risks in business is a good idea.
Is buying a house a big risk?	Yes, buying a house is a big risk. or: No, buying a house isn't a big risk.

the top on top hair

Is my hair blue?	No, your hair isn't blue, but it's black.
Where is my hair?	Your hair is at the top of your head.
Is my hair at the top of your head?	No, your hair isn't at the top of my head, but it's at the top of your head.
Which part of the body is at the top?	The head is at the top of the body.
Are there numbers at the top of the pages in your book?	No, there aren't numbers at the top of the pages in my book.
What's on top of my table?	Your book and your phone are on top of your table.
Do you live on top of a house?	No, I don't live on top of a house, but I live in a house.
Should people let children play on top of buildings?	No, people shouldn't let children play on top of buildings.

quality

Is quality important to you when you want to buy a car?	Yes, quality is important to me when I want to buy a car.
Is the quality of our lessons important to you?	Yes, the quality of our lessons is important to me.
When you buy a thing, which is more important – quality or the price?	When I buy a thing, quality is more important to me than the price.
Can all people buy high quality food?	No, not all people can buy high quality food.
Do some local businesses provide low quality services?	Yes, some local businesses provide low quality services.

a career focus

Is your career important to you?	Yes, my career is important to me. or: No, my career isn't important to me.
Is your career more important than your family?	Yes, my career is more important than my family. or: No, my career isn't more important than my family.
Is it easy to build a career when you're young?	Yes, it's easy to build a career when you're young. or: No, it isn't easy to build a career when you're young.
Is building a career easy without a good education?	Yes, building a career is easy without a good education. or: No, building a career isn't easy without a good education.
Do you focus on your career now?	Yes, I focus on my career now. or: No, I don't focus on my career now.
Did you focus on your career when you were in college?	Yes, I focused on my career when I was in college. or: No, I didn't focus on my career when I was in college, but I focused on ...
Can you always focus during a lesson?	Yes, I can always focus during a lesson. or: No, I can't always focus during a lesson.
When people start a business, is it more important to focus on making money or providing high quality?	When people start a business it's more important to focus on providing high quality.

a cup
the world cup

Do people drink coffee from a cup?	Yes, people drink coffee from a cup.
Do you eat from a cup?	No, I don't eat from a cup.
Would you like a cup of tea?	Yes, please. or: No, thank you.
Is it possible that Latvia will win the World Cup next time?	No, it isn't possible that Latvia will win the World Cup next time.
Do you think Brazil will win the next World Cup?	Yes, I think Brazil will win the next World Cup. or: No, I don't think Brazil will win the next World Cup, but I think Germany will win.

drop

Do you often drop things on the floor?	Yes, I often drop things on the floor. or: No, I don't often drop things on the floor.
Is it easy to drop something when your hands are full?	Yes, it's easy to drop something when your hands are full.
Has anything ever dropped into your cup of coffee?	Yes, something has dropped into my cup of coffee. or: No, nothing has dropped into my cup of coffee.
Is it wrong to drop a baby?	Yes, it's wrong to drop a baby.
Have house prices dropped in recent years?	Yes, house prices have dropped in recent years.
Have food prices dropped in recent months?	No, food prices haven't dropped in recent months, but they've increased.

usually recently

Do you usually drink coffee with or without sugar?	I usually drink coffee with sugar.
Do women usually stop working after they get a baby?	Yes, women usually stop working after they get a baby.
Does she usually sit in that place?	No, she usually doesn't sit in that place, but she usually sits in that place.
Do brothers and sisters usually have a good relationship?	Yes, brothers and sisters usually have a good relationship. or: No, brothers and sisters usually don't have a good relationship.
On which days do people usually go to church?	People usually go to church on Sundays.
Is it usually hot in the summer?	Yes, it's usually hot in the summer.
Have you recently learned any new words?	Yes, I have recently learned some new words.
Have you recently dropped anything on the floor?	Yes, I have recently dropped something on the floor. or: No, I haven't recently dropped anything on the floor.
Has she recently changed where she sits?	No, she hasn't recently changed where she sits.
Have we recently added new students to our group?	Yes, we have recently added new students to our group. or: No, we haven't recently added new students to our group.
Have you recently waited in a very long line in a store?	Yes, I have recently waited in a very long line in a store. or: No, I haven't recently waited in a very long line in a store.

Have you recently stayed in a hotel?	Yes, I have recently stayed in a hotel. or: No, I haven't recently stayed in a hotel.

plan
a plan

What are you planning to do after the lesson?	I'm planning to go home and eat after the lesson.
What are your plans for tonight?	My plans for tonight are eating and watching TV.
Are you planning anything for next summer?	Yes, I'm planning something for next summer. or: No, I'm not planning anything for next summer.
Do you have any plans for next week?	Yes, I have some plans for next week. or: No, I don't have any plans for next week.
Is it a good idea to make a business plan before starting a business?	Yes, it's a good idea to make a business plan before starting a business.
Do you usually make plans for the future?	Yes, I usually make plans for the future. or: No, I usually don't make plans for the future.
Should young people make career plans while they're still in high school?	Yes, young people should make career plans while they're still in high school. or: No, young people shouldn't make career plans while they're still in high school.

less ... than the least

Do you drink less coffee than water?	Yes, I drink less coffee than water. or: No, I don't drink less coffee than water, but I drink more coffee.
Do you think we should talk less?	No, we shouldn't talk less, but we should talk more.
Do you think you have less money than Aivars Lembergs?	Yes, I think I have less money than Aivars Lembergs.
Is it possible that I have more money than Lembergs?	No, it isn't possible that you have more money than Lembergs.
Is studying less important than doing sports?	Yes, studying is less important than doing sports. or: No, studying isn't less important than doing sports, but it's more important.
Do you think English might be less difficult than Japanese?	Yes, I think English might be less difficult than Japanese.
Is your family less important to you than your career?	No, my family isn't less important to me than my career.
Is experience less important than education?	No, experience isn't less important than education.
Who reads the least in your family?	My brother reads the least in my family.
Which do you think is the least difficult language in the world?	I think Spanish is the least difficult language in the world.

likely expect

How many students are likely to come to the next lesson?	8 students are likely to come to the next lesson.
Is a teacher likely to come to the next lesson?	Yes, a teacher is likely to come to the next lesson.

Are you likely to learn German in the future?	Yes, I'm likely to learn German in the future. or: No, I'm not likely to learn German in the future.
Do you think I'm likely to become a college teacher?	Yes, I think you're likely to become a college teacher. or: No, I don't think you're likely to become a college teacher.
Is next summer likely to be hot?	Yes, next summer is likely to be hot. or: No, next summer isn't likely to be hor.
Is Brazil likely to win the next World Cup?	Yes, Brazil is likely to win the next World Cup. or: No, Brazil isn't likely to win the next World Cup.
Do you expect Brazil to win?	Yes, I expect Brazil to win. or: No, I don't expect Brazil to win, but I expect Germany to win.
Do you expect me to teach you English?	Yes, I expect you to teach me English.
Why?	Because you're the teacher.
Do most people expect their kids to go to college?	Yes, most people expect their kids to go to college.
Why?	Because they want their kids to have an education.
Do you expect the population of the world to increase?	Yes, I expect the population of the world to increase.
Why?	Because it has increased in the past.
Do you expect a teacher to be here next lesson?	Yes, I expect a teacher to be here next lesson.
Why?	Because we can't learn without a teacher.

a tax percent require

Do we have to pay taxes?	Yes, we have to pay taxes.
Would you like to pay less taxes?	Yes, I'd like to pay less taxes. or: No, I wouldn't like to pay less taxes.
What is the tax on food?	The tax on food is 21 percent.
What percent of the money that you make do you pay in taxes?	I pay about 30 percent of the money I make in taxes.
Who requires us to pay taxes?	The government requires us to pay taxes.
Do many jobs require a lot of experience?	Yes, many jobs require a lot of experience. or: No, not many jobs require a lot of experience.
Do teachers require you to answer questions?	Yes, teachers require us to answer questions.
Do we require you to buy many books?	No, you don't require us to buy many books.
How many percent of the world's population are women ?	I think 51 percent of the world's population are women.
What percent of the people in this room are students?	90 percent of the people in this room are students.
What percent of our lessons do we spend talking?	We spend about 80 percent of our lessons talking.

a bag carry full

Do you have a bag?	Yes, I have a bag. or: No, I don't have a bag.
Do you always carry a bag with you?	Yes, I always carry a bag with me. or: No, I don't always carry a bag with me.
When you go home, do you throw your bag on the floor?	Yes, when I go home, I throw my bag on the floor. or: No, when I go home, I don't throw my bag on the floor.
Is it a good idea to carry a lot of money with you?	No, it isn't a good idea to carry a lot of money with you.
Can you carry a ball in basketball?	No, you can't carry a ball in basketball, but you must throw it.
Is your bag usually full?	Yes, my bag is usually full. or: No, my bag usually isn't full.
Is this room full of people?	No, this room isn't full of people.
How do you know?	Because more people could sit here.
Is your head full of ideas?	Yes, my head is full of ideas. or: No, my head isn't full of ideas.
Do you go to the store with your own bag?	Yes, I go to the store with my own bag. or: No, I don't go to the store with my own bag, but I buy one at the store.

a doctor
a patient
a drug

Are you a doctor?	Yes, I'm a doctor. or: No, I'm not a doctor, but I'm a ...
How long must you study to become a doctor?	You must study for 6 years to become a doctor.
Do you think doctors make a lot of money?	Yes, I think doctors make a lot of money. or: No, I don't think doctors make a lot of money.
Do you think it's easy to work with patients?	Yes, I think it's easy to work with patients. or: No, I don't think it's easy to work with patients, but I think it's hard.
Have you ever stayed in a hospital as a patient?	Yes, I have stayed in a hospital as a patient. or: I haven't stayed in a hospital as a patient.
Are patients usually happy?	No, patients usually aren't happy.
Do you often use drugs?	Yes, I often use drugs. or: No, I don't often use drugs.
When do people use drugs?	People use drugs when they have health problems.
How often do you see a doctor?	I see a doctor twice a year.
Do many doctors agree to see their patients at night?	No, not many doctors agree to see their patients at night.
Will you see your friends after the lesson?	Yes, I'll see my friends after the lesson. or: No, I won't see my friends after the lesson.

Will I see you here next week?	Yes, you'll see me here next week. or: No, you won't see me here next week.

even though

Should teachers learn new words every day even though they already know a lot?	Yes, teachers should learn new words every day even though they already know a lot.
Do you sometimes go to work even though you don't feel good?	Yes, I sometimes go to work even though I don't feel good.
Do some people have great jobs even though they don't have a good education?	Yes, some people have great jobs even though they don't have a good education.
Do some people have a bad career even though they make an effort?	Yes, some people have a bad career even though they make an effort.
Is it sometimes cold even though it's summer?	Yes, sometimes it's cold even though it's summer.

a test
pass

Do we take tests at this school?	Yes, we take tests at this school.
Did you like taking tests when you were a child?	Yes, I liked taking tests when I was a child. or: No, I didn't like taking tests when I was a child.
Would you like to take a test now?	No, I wouldn't like to take a test now.

Who has passed a driving test?

Do people have to learn a lot of theory to pass a driving test?	Yes, people have to learn a lot of theory to pass a driving test. or: No, people don't have to learn a lot of theory to pass a driving test.

Do you suggest I take a driving test?	Yes, I suggest you take a driving test. or: No, I don't suggest you take a driving test.
Did you always pass all the tests in high school?	Yes, I always passed all the tests in high school. or: No, I didn't always pass all the tests in high school.
Did you pass a store on your way to school?	Yes, I passed a store on my way to school. or: No, I didn't pass a store on my way to school.
Do you pass many old buildings on your way to work?	Yes, I pass many old buildings on my way to work. or: No, I don't pass many old buildings on my way to work.

draw a picture

Can you draw?	Yes, I can draw. or: No, I can't draw.
Can you draw well?	Yes, I can draw well. or: No, I can't draw well.
Can you draw a picture of a cat?	Yes, I can draw a picture of a cat. or: No, I can't draw a picture of a cat.
Are there any pictures in this room?	Yes, there are some pictures in this room.
Are there any pictures in your English books?	No, there aren't any pictures in our English books.
Do kids' books usually have pictures?	Yes, kids' books usually have pictures.
Might it be hard to draw a picture of a person?	Yes, it might be hard to draw a picture of a person.

no

Are there any cats in this room?	No, there are no cats in this room.
Are there any pictures in your book?	No, there are no pictures in my book.
Are there any Americans in your group?	No, there are no Americans in our group.
Do you have any Americans at home?	No, I have no Americans at home.
Have you passed any tests today?	No, I have passed no tests today.
Did you pass any churches on your way to the lesson?	Yes, I passed some churches on my way to the lesson. or: No, I passed no churches on my way to the lesson.

break
a community community service

Do you think it's easy to break this window?	Yes, I think it's easy to break this window. or: No, I don't think it's easy to break this window.
Is it easy to break a pencil?	Yes, it's easy to break a pencil.
Do you often break things?	Yes, I often break things. or: No, I don't often break things.
What happens to a phone if you drop it on the floor?	If you drop a phone on the floor, it breaks.
What should you do when somebody breaks your window?	You should call the police when somebody breaks your window.
What happens after that?	The police come and take that person with them.
And what happens after that?	The person must do community service.

What usually happens after young people draw on somebody's walls?	After young people draw on somebody's walls, they often have to do community service.
Do you often do something good for your community?	Yes, I often do something good for my community. or: No, I don't often do something good for my community.
Is the Russian community large in our town?	Yes, the Russian* community is large in our town.

an issue
a heart

Can you get health issues if you eat too much?	Yes, you can get health issues if you eat too much.
Do some people in our community have money issues?	Yes, some people in our community have money issues.
Does the government help people with money issues?	Yes, the government helps people with money issues.
Where is your heart?	My heart is here.
Some people say your home is where your heart is. Do you agree with them?	Yes, I agree with them. or: No, I don't agree with them.
Is it easy to break somebody's heart?	Yes, it's easy to break somebody's heart. or: No, it isn't easy to break somebody's heart.

face

What am I facing?	You're facing the wall and the window.
Who am I facing?	You're facing us.

Do you think I'm facing west?	Yes, I think you're facing west. or: No, I don't think you're facing west, but I think you're facing south.
Should people face you when they talk to you?	Yes, people should face me when they talk to me.

decide make a decision

Is it easy for you to decide what to eat?	Yes, it's easy for me to decide what to eat. or: No, it isn't easy for me to decide what to eat, but it's hard.
Who decides how much taxes we pay?	The government decides how much taxes we pay.
I can't decide what to do tonight. What do you suggest I do?	I suggest you stay at home tonight.
I can't decide where to go next summer. Where do you suggest I go?	I suggest you go to Iceland.
Why did you decide to learn English?	I decided to learn English because I wanted to talk to foreign people.
Is it easy to make a good decision in a short time?	Yes, it's easy to make a good decision in a short time. or: No, it isn't easy to make a good decision in a short time, but it's hard.
Can children always make their own decisions?	No, children can't always make their own decisions, but their parents make decisions for them.

Do you always support your friends' decisions?	Yes, I always support my friends' decisions. or: No, I don't always support my friends' decisions.

a director

Are you the director of your company?	Yes, I'm the director of my company. or: No, I'm not the director of my company, but I'm …
Do directors make important decisions?	Yes, directors make important decisions.
Are you a film director?	Yes, I'm a film director. or: No, I'm not a film director.
Would you like to become a film director?	Yes, I'd like to become a film director. or: No, I wouldn't like to become a film director.
Who do you think is the best film director in Latvia?	I think Jānis Streičs is the best film director in Latvia.
Who do you think is the best foreign movie director?	I think Steven Spielberg is the best foreign movie director.

myself yourself himself herself itself ourselves yourselves themselves

Do you make food yourself or does somebody make it for you?	I make food myself. or: My wife makes food for me.
Do you think the president makes all decisions himself?	No, I don't think the president makes all decisions himself, but the government helps him.
Can small kids reach all things themselves?	No, small kids can't reach all things themselves, but their parents help them.
Do you think I should try to buy a house myself or with the help of a bank?	I think you should try to buy a house yourself. or: I think you should buy a house with the help of a bank.
Who here has a cat?
Can your cat open the door itself?	Yes, my cat can open the door itself. or: No, my cat can't open the door itself.

of course

Are you in this room?	Of course I'm in this room.
Do you live in Latvia?	Of course I live in Latvia.
Can you speak English?	Of course I can speak English.
Is your name Jānis?	Of course my name is Jānis.
Could I take your book for a minute?	Of course you could take my book for a minute.
Are there 20 people in this room?	Of course there aren't 20 people in this room.
Is it healthy to eat too much?	Of course it isn't healthy to eat too much.

especially Please continue after me:

I like all languages, …	… especially English.
I love all animals, …	… especially dogs.
I like all kinds of cars, …	… especially BMWs.

a reason

Why are you here?	I'm here because I want to learn English.
What's the reason you're here?	The reason I'm here is that I want to learn English.
Why are you studying English?	I'm studying English because I need it for work.
What's the reason you're studying English?	The reason I'm studying English is that I need it for work.
What's the reason people go to college?	The reason people go to college is that they want to get an education.

Do you know the reason some people have money issues?	Yes, I know the reason some people have money issues. or: No, I don't know the reason some people have money issues.
Do people need a reason to love their families?	No, people don't need a reason to love their families.

so

Continue my reasons with 'so …', please:
The teacher doesn't have any money, …	… so she can't buy anything.
The teacher doesn't have a TV at home, …	… so she can't watch TV tonight.
The teacher is an only child, …	… so she doesn't have any brothers or sisters.
Our lesson has almost finished, …	… so we'll go home soon.

die kill

When did Elvis Presley die?	Elvis Presley died in 1977.
Do you remember when Princess Diana died?	Yes, I remember when Princess Diana died. or: No, I don't remember when Princess Diana died.
Is killing somebody a bad thing?	Yes, killing somebody is a bad thing.
Is killing people against the law?	Yes, killing people is against the law.
Is drawing on walls against the law?	Yes, drawing on walls is against the law.
Is learning English against the law?	No, learning English isn't against the law.

whether

Do you know whether I will go home after the lesson?	No, I don't know whether you will go home after the lesson.
Do you know whether I have a dog at home?	No, I don't know whether you have a dog at home.
Do you know whether I have a brother or not?	No, I don't know whether you have a brother or not.
Do you know whether I have passed a driving test?	No, I don't know whether you have passed a driving test.
Do you know whether I called my mother yesterday?	No, I don't know whether you called your mother yesterday.
Did he tell us whether he will come to the next lesson?	No, he didn't tell us whether he will come to the next lesson.

a level
the sea

Is Latvia by the Baltic sea?	Yes, Latvia is by the Baltic sea.
Do you live by the sea?	Yes, I live by the sea. or: No, I don't live by the sea.
Does the level of water in the sea change?	Yes, the level of water in the sea changes.
Does the level of water in the sea sometimes increase?	Yes, the level of water in the sea sometimes increases.
Is your level of English higher than a year ago?	Yes, my level of English is higher than a year ago.
Does your level of English increase every lesson?	Yes, my level of English increases every lesson.

hope

Do you hope something good will happen to you this week?	Yes, I hope something good will happen to me this week.

Do you hope something good will happen to me this week?	Yes, I hope something good will happen to you this week.
Do you hope next summer will be hot?	Yes, I hope next summer will be hot. or: No, I hope next summer won't be hot.
Do you hope we will all make a lot of money this year?	Yes, I hope we will all make a lot of money this year.
Do you hope to become the director of your company soon?	Yes, I hope to become the director of my company soon. or: No, I don't hope to become the director of my company soon.

a voice raise

Can you hear my voice?	Yes, I can hear your voice.
Do you like your voice?	Yes, I like my voice. or: No, I don't like my voice.
Do you think most people like listening to their own voice?	Yes, I think most people like listening to their own voice. or: No, I don't think most people like listening to their own voice.
Do you like the voice of Elvis Presley?	Yes, I like the voice of Elvis Presley. or: No, I don't like the voice of Elvis Presley.
Do you often raise your voice?	Yes, I often raise my voice. or: No, I don't often raise my voice.
Did they raise food prices last year?	Yes, they raised food prices last year. or: No, they didn't raise food prices last year.

Has the government raised taxes this year?	Yes, the government has raised taxes this year. or: No, the government hasn't raised taxes this year.
Is raising children easy?	Yes, raising children is easy. or: No, raising children isn't easy, but it's hard.
Are you raising a child?	Yes, I'm raising a child. or: No, I'm not raising a child.

clear clearly light

Are all things always clear to you when I explain them?	No, not all things are always clear to us when you explain them.
Do you understand people better when they speak clearly?	Yes, I understand people better when they speak clearly.
Do you always try to speak clearly?	Yes, I always try to speak clearly. or: No, I don't always try to speak clearly.
Can you see me clearly?	Yes, I can see you clearly. or: No, I can't see you clearly.
Can you hear the other students clearly?	Yes, I can hear the other students clearly. or: No, I can't hear the other students clearly.
Is the window clear?	Yes, the window is clear.
Is your table clear?	No, my table isn't clear.
Is there much light in this room?	Yes, there's much light in this room. or: No, there isn't much light in this room.

Is there more light in the winter than in the summer?	No, there isn't more light in the winter than in the summer, but there is less light in the winter.

produce

a product

What does Volvo produce?	Volvo produces cars.
What do they produce in Germany?	They produce cars and food in Germany.
What do they produce in Latvia?	They produce food and clothes in Latvia.
Do all businesses produce something?	No, not all business produce something; some provide services.
Do you think products from foreign countries are better than local ones?	Yes, I think products from foreign countries are better than local ones. or: No, I don't think products from foreign countries are better than local ones, but I think the local ones are better.
Is it easy to decide which product to buy when there are very many?	No, it isn't easy to decide which product to buy when there are very many.

a tree

grow

plant

Do you have trees around your house?	Yes, I have trees around my house. or: No, I don't have trees around my house.
Have you ever planted a tree?	Yes, I've planted a tree. or: No, I haven't planted a tree.

Have you ever planted anything?	Yes, I've planted something. or: No, I haven't planted anything.
Do some people have to plant trees when they do community service?	Yes, some people have to plant trees when they do community service.
Do trees grow well when it's cold?	No, trees don't grow well when it's cold.
Do some trees still grow in winter?	Yes, some trees still grow in winter.
Does money grow on trees?	No, money doesn't grow on trees.

military service protect

Do young men in Latvia have to do military service?	No, young men in Latvia don't have to do military service.
Do women often do military service?	Yes, women often do military service. or: No, women don't often do military service.
How long do you think military service is in most countries?	I think military service is 2 years long in most countries.
Do people protect the country while they do military service?	Yes, people protect the country while they do military service.
Is it important for parents to protect their children?	Yes, it's important for parents to protect their children.
Who do parents protect their children against?	People protect their children against bad people.

return

What time do you return home after your English lessons?	I return home at half past eight after my English lessons.

Do you sometimes need to return to the shop because you didn't buy something?	Yes, I sometimes need to return to the shop because I didn't buy something. or: No, I never need to return to the shop because I didn't buy something.
Do people always return from military service?	No, people don't always return from military service.
Will you return here next week?	Yes, I'll return here next week.
Would you like to return to high school?	Yes, I'd like to return to high school. or: No, I wouldn't like to return to high school.

include

Do our lessons include writing?	Yes, our lessons include writing.
Does your English book include pages for writing?	Yes, my English book includes pages for writing.
Do product prices in stores usually include tax?	Yes, product prices in stores usually include tax.
Does being a director include making big decisions?	Yes, being a director includes making big decisions.
Does military service sometimes include killing people?	Yes, military service sometimes includes killing people.
Does your work experience include many different jobs?	Yes, my work experience includes many different jobs. or: No, my work experience doesn't include many different jobs.

the right to

Do all people have the right to be free?	Yes, all people have the right to be free.
Do students have the right to ask questions during the lesson?	Yes, students have the right to ask questions during the lesson.
Do all people have the right to become president?	No, not all people have the right to become president, but only people older than 40 have the right to become president.
Do all people have the right to get an education?	Yes, all people have the right to get an education.
Do all people have the opportunity to get an education?	No, not all people have the opportunity to get an education.
Do human rights include the right to think what you want?	Yes, human rights include the right to think what you want.
Does the law protect human rights?	Yes, the law protects human rights.

done

What are you doing now?	I'm talking to you.
Have you talked to me before?	Yes, I've talked to you before.
Have you done that before?	Yes, I've done that before.
Look at me, please!
Have you looked at me before?	Yes, I've looked at you before.
Have you done that before?	Yes, I've done that before.
Have you learned a foreign language before?	Yes, I've learned a foreign language before. or: No, I haven't learned a foreign language before.

Have you asked me a question this lesson?	Yes, I've asked you a question this lesson. or: No, I haven't asked you a question this lesson.
How many questions have I asked you this lesson?	You've asked us about 100 questions today.
Have you done many things today?	Yes, I've done many things today. or: No, I haven't done many things today.
Have you done anything important today?	Yes, I've done something important today. or: No, I haven't done anything important today.
Have you watched the news today?	Yes, I've watched the news today. or: No, I haven't watched the news today.
Have you started reading a new book this week?	Yes, I've started reading a new book this week. or: No, I haven't started reading a new book this week.
Have you waited in a very long line this month?	Yes, I've waited in a very long line this month. or: No, I haven't waited in a very long line this month.
Have you received many e-mails this week?	Yes, I've received many e-mails this week. or: No, I haven't received many e-mails this week.
Have you walked much today?	Yes, I've walked much today. or: No, I haven't walked much today.

Dictation 14

She doesn't meet many people at work. I would like to spend more time with my family. Do you work in an office? I'll try to continue after they leave. I don't think that guy is tall enough to be our teacher. You can create art and music on the Internet.

Dictation 15

I'm against another war. She's waiting for us across the street in front of the door. Perhaps I'll be able to send you an e-mail or a text message. We need to learn, but it isn't easy. They're building their own house. I always listen to everything the teacher says.

Dictation 16

My children will finish high school before they start going to college. She looks like the girl from the movie. They might provide that service there. If you follow all the road signs, you can go where you need. I don't let my kids watch TV shows at night.

Dictation 17

The education system has to change. If I want to be healthy, I should do more sports. The only person who always talks to others is the teacher. I'll call you within two hours. Everyone else has a lot of great business ideas. There are some differences between them.

Dictation 18

We have a very good relationship with the police officer. Where did you live ten years ago? I didn't explain anything to my husband. There are single and double rooms in most hotels. She suggested a price to her brother. They opened the hospital and the church last year.

Dictation 19

I like winter sports more than summer sports. Whose wife was at the event? I agree with them. I would like to get up earlier. My baby takes bigger steps now. You can see more stars in the south. I speak five foreign languages. It isn't too difficult.

Dictation 20

I'll go to bed later in the future. We live in the twenty-first century. I have never picked up things from the street. I haven't learned a billion foreign words yet. I haven't started reading page three hundred and sixty-eight yet. She has worked here since nineteen ninety-four.

Dictation 21

The lesson has already started. The author of that book is their old professor. I can't throw the ball far enough. You have to use your current opportunities. My daughter focused on her career after college. The quality of those cars has to be higher if you want to make money.

Dictation 22

The student dropped a cup on the floor. I usually plan everything. We expect you to be here next week. This summer is likely to be less hot than the last one. Fifteen per cent of the population of this area are against higher taxes. We require you to carry the patient's bag.

Exercises

I – me you – you he – him she – her it – it we – us they – them
↔ each other

23 me, you, him, her, it, us, them or each other? (127)

He's a good person – I like him a lot. We like each other.

1 I can see _____ very well because she's sitting near me.
2 He can hear (he)_____, but I can't hear (I) _____ on the phone.
3 William loves Elizabeth and Elizabeth loves William – they love _____.
4 Can I call (you) _____ later today?
5 I don't talk to my parents much because I don't meet _____ often.
6 We don't understand; please explain it to _____ again.
7 I don't like standing in front of the table – I usually stand behind _____.

24 anyone, someone or everyone? (134)

Can anyone here speak Japanese? Yes, someone can speak Japanese.
Everyone in this room can speak English.

1 If you have good friends, you can always talk to _____.
2 Does _____ here think that eating a lot is healthy?
3 That's John – _____ knows him in this town because he works in TV.
4 There wasn't _____ in the room before the lesson.
5 Can _____ tell me Mrs. Smith's first name?
6 I'm sure there's _____ behind the door.
7 I know almost _____ at this party.

25 in or within? (135)

It's 6 p.m. and I'll be at home at 8 p.m. I'll be at home in 2 hours.
It's 6 a.m. and I'll eat something at 7 a.m. or before that. I'll eat something within 1 hour.

1 I'm 27 now. I want to buy a big house when I'm 30.

_____

2 It's 4 p.m. and I can't talk to you at the moment. Please call me at 4:05.

_____

3 It's 2014 now, and I want to buy a house in 2019 or before that.

_____

4 It's 6:30 p.m. and I think John will be here at 6:45 or even before that.

_____

5 It's Wednesday, and I know I'll see you on Friday.

_____

6 It's Thursday and you should finish reading this book before next Thursday.

_____

7 It's 2014. I would like to learn Chinese before 2034.

_____

26 the past (143)

I lived in Paris 3 years ago. Did he also live there?

THE PAST = verb + ED
(worked, talked, listened, lived, ...)

1 (work) I _____ in another company 2 years ago.
2 (answer) The teacher _____ all our questions last lesson.
3 (study) My father _____ English 30 years ago.
4 (play) _____ Mary _____ football with you on Sunday?
5 (believe) When I was a kid, I _____ in Santa Claus.
6 (talk) We _____ to each other on the phone last week.
7 (start, finish) I _____ work at 8 a.m. and _____ at 5 p.m.
8 (open) What time _____ they _____ the shop?
9 (have) _____ the students _____ many questions after our last lesson?
10 (receive) William _____ a letter from his mother last month.

27 Did you ..? (145)

Do you live here? Did you live here?*
I learn new words. I learned new words.
I don't work here. I didn't work here.

1 Do you watch TV in the evening?

_____

2 I study English with my friends.

_____

3 He only plays football with his brother.

_____

4 They don't listen to me!

_____

5 I push the door to open it.

_____

6 Do you add milk to tea or coffee?

_____

7 Does your husband create music?

_____

8 Do the students need pens?

_____

9 She doesn't offer me a drink.

_____

10 Our lessons finish at six.

_____

28 Years (146)

1996 – nineteen ninety-six

1972 –

1642 –

1919 –

1888 –

2001 –

2014 –

1190 –

1267 –

29 big, bigger or the biggest? (156)

My house is big. My house is bigger than your house. My house is the biggest house in our street.

1 (early) I have to go to work very _____ – at 7 a.m.

2 (late) She goes to bed _____ her husband because she works more.

3 (high) That is _____ building in the city – you can see everything from there.

4 (old) My brother is 5 years _____ me.

5 (healthy) I think drinking tea is _____ drinking coffee.

6 (low) That shop offers _____ prices in this area.

7 (big) His dog is so _____ that he can't put it into a car.

8 (hard) It's _____ for me to speak English _____ Russian.

9 (new) John is _____ member of our party.

10 (strong) I would like to become _____ I am now.

30 Have you ever ..? How long have you ..? (168)

I / live in this town / since 1998 – I have lived in this town since 1998.

you / ever / live in another country ? – Have you ever lived in another country?

1 we / study English / for 3 months –

2 you / ever / study Japanese ? –

3 they / join / several political parties –

4 I / live in this city / since 2004 –

5 how long / you / stay in this room ? –

6 you / ever / agree to speak in front of 1000 people ? –

7 I / offer to help the teacher / twice –

8 how many times in your life / you / received something from Santa Claus ? –

9 we / watch American TV –

31 Have you..? Has she..? (170)

Have you tried to learn Spanish? No, I haven't tried to learn Spanish.

Has she tried to learn Russian? No, she hasn't tried to learn Russian.

1 _____ you (live) _____ in a foreign country?

2 I (change) _____ my hair color only once.

3 The population of the world (increase) _____ since 2002.

4 _____ she ever (work) _____ in a car shop?

5 My brother _____ never (play) _____ tennis.

6 I _____ never (explain) _____ anything to my boss.

7 _____ Mary (add) _____ milk to my coffee?

8 They (ask) _____ the teacher many questions.

9 We (offer) _____ them something to eat.

10 During her life, she (want) _____ to become a president, a teacher, and a movie star.

32 myself, yourself, himself, herself, itself, ourselves, yourselves or themselves? (197)

I can do it without your help. – I can do it myself.

1 The students can't study without a teacher.

_____

2 Can your husband make food without your help?

_____

3 She makes her own clothes.

_____

4 We didn't want to wait – we changed rooms without any help.

_____

5 Did you make this food?

_____

33 What have you done today? (207)

I / call my mother / today. – I have called my mother today.

1 I / watch TV / this week –
2 she / not / play tennis / today –
3 they / listen to a lot of music / tonight –
4 we / not / learn many Chinese words / this month –
5 the teacher / learn any new English words / this year? –
6 who / talked to Brian / this morning ? –
7 what / you / do / today ? –
8 he / do many important things / this year –
9 you / not / work much / this week –
10 people / change a lot / during this decade –

34 What's wrong?

He ~~have~~ has received a text message.

I'm ~~am~~ a student.

1 I has three cats and two dogs.
2We don't have some money at the moment.
3 I start school 12 years ago.
4 I did many good things today.
5 She can't do it myself.
6 My sister has a black hair.
7 I think English is difficult than Spanish.
8 I have tryed to call you twice this week.
9 I start work more early than others.
10 What is that person?

Dictations:

Dictations:

Dictations:

Dictations:

Notes:

Notes: